WEIGHT LIMIT IN FIRST AND SECOND ZONES INCREASED TO FIFTY POUNDS

SERVICE IS EXTENDED TO BOOKS

nterstate Commerce Commission Approves Burleson's Changes. Rates Cut and Weight Raised In All Zones

Washington - Postmaster General Burleson's proposals to increase the veight limits of parcel post packages n the first and second zones from wenty to fifty pounds, to admit books o the parcel post and to reduce rates n the third, fourth, fifth and sixth cones were approved by the interitate commerce commission.

The maximum weight of parcels to ill zones beyond the second was increased from eleven to twenty pounds. The approved changes in rates and weights to be in effect January 1. 1914, follow:

To reduce the rates for the third tone from 7 cents for the first pound and 5 cents for each additional pound to 6 cents for the first pound and 2 cents for each additional pound.

To reduce the rates for the fourth one from 8 cents for the first pound and six cents for each additional pound to 7 cents for the first pound and 4 cents for each additional pound

To reduce the rates for the fifth tone from 9 cents for the first pound and 7 cents for each additional pound to 8 cents for the first pound and 6 cents for each additional pound.

To reduce the rates for the sixth tone from 10 cents for the first pound and 9 cents for each additional pound to 9 cents for the first pound and 8 cents for each additional pound.

It is provided by the postmaster general with the consent of the commission, that the rate of postage on parcels containing books weighing eight ounces or less shall be one cent for each two ounces or fractional part thereof and on those weighing in excess of eight ounces the zone parcel post rates shall apply." This is to be effective March 16, 1914.

Serious objections to the proposed change in the rates on books and catalogs were made chiefly by mailers of neavy catalogs, but the commission says it feels that the changes are in the interest of the public generally.

Gold By Parcel Post.

Consent also was given by the commission to admission of shipments of gold, gold bullion and gold dust in Alaska, and to and from Alaska in packages weighing not more than eleven pounds. The rate of postage fixed is two cents an ounce, or fraction thereof for all distances.

'The postmaster general issued an order effective August 15, last, increasing the weight limit in the first and second zones from eleven to twenty pounds and materially reducing the rates of postage for these zones and stated at that time that this step was in the nature of an experi-ment," said a statement issued by the postoffice department.

The number of parcels handled in the first and second zones since these changes became effective show kn increase of approximately 16 per cent. The average weight limit has also increased from 1.02 to 1.7 pounds per parcel and notwithstanding the great reduction in rates in the first and second zones, the average postage has increased per parcel from 7.7 to 10

WANTS HALF MILLION

New Albanian King's Ideas on Salary are Extravagant

Paris.-A half million dollars is the minimum salary demanded by the Prince of Wied as king of Albania. The prince already has accepted the throne and the Austrian and Italian cabinets are trying to induce the other powers to accept him. He insists upon a reasonable allowance to keep up his court. His present income is $30,000.

Inagin, Outagin, Gonigin, Emelin. London. — Mrs. Emmeline Par hurst, the militant suffraget leader who was arrested at Plymouth on De cember 4, on her arrival from the United States aboard the steamship Majestic, has been released from the Exeter jail. Mrs. Pankhurst began a hunger strike immediately following her arrest. Mrs. Pankhurst was driven to a hotel. She appeared very weak and immediately went to bed in charge of a nurse. Mrs. Pankhurst is liberated on seven days' license. She intends to proceed to London at the earliest moment.

NEW WAY WITH DISHES

WILL BE FOUND TO LIGHTEN HOUSEHOLD DUTIES.

Once a Day Sufficient, With Proper Management-After Breakfast the Best Time to Perform the Necessary Work.

It is astonishing to think that after enturies of housekeeping women should continue to wash dishes in the same old way. The mother of a girl who finished her college course last spring sends in this excellent plan by which she and her daughter contrived to lighten their household duties very greatly. In the first place, it is a small family of four, and they wash lishes only once a day-in the mornng. Does that sound slovenly to you? No, it is merely good management. After each meal the dishes are held inder a spigot—the hot one if they ire very greasy—and that takes care if the "horrid" part. They are then stacked carefully in a large wooden oox which stands on the table con-reniently near the sink. The lid is closed, the rest of the kitchen put in order, the pots put to coak in an inconspicuous place and the "co-opera-ive housekepers" are free to spend the afternoon or evening pleasantly.

After breakfast, however, when plenty of hot water is at hand, they begin washing the glass and silver in big dishpan of sudsy water. These are rinsed and dried; the rest of the fishes are washed, set in wire racks hat one can get for that purpose and thoroughly scalded with hot water that comes directly from the spigot through a short length of hose, one end of which is slipped over the spigot and the other end of which carries a oathroom spray nozzle. This hose, by the way, is a home-made arrangement Most of the water having now run off, the dish rack is lifted on the news papered top of a sort of butler's tray on wheels. This tea wagon was also made by the college girl, who had had a bit of manual training. The wagon was then pushed into the pantry and by the time the second rack of disher was ready the first was dry and ready to be packed on the shelves.

It certainly is a pleasure to see and eat from those beautiful shiny dishes Of course, there were left the potand pans, which had to be scrubbed and dried. But that isn't a bad jot if one is not already tired out with drying and packing away numerous small lots of dishes. To be sure, it takes a great many dishes, but ther no one thinks of washing the clother every day because it takes a lot to keep going all week. After all if with proper organization one can get well done, all at once, whatever work is really necessary, why stick to an an tiquated method?

Sarango Macaroni. Sarango macaroni is another "tasty" dish. Take half a pound of macaron broken into small pieces, and boil til tender. Line a dish with a rich shorpaste, which has been brushed with beaten eggs and covered with grater cheese so that the latter adheres to the sides as well as to the bottom. Into this pour about half the macaroni sprinkling lightly with the cheese, and then a thick layer of plum or rasp berry jam, or orange marmalade. Add the remainder of the macaroni and fil the dish with a custard made of two eggs, a small cupful of milk and pinch of salt. Cover with the crust and bake in a quick oven. This is good hot or cold, and needs no sauce, heaping tablespoons cornstarch (I prefer flour) in a little cold milk or wa ter, add two tablespoons sugar pinch of salt, one-half cup strong fresh coffee. Stir this into the scalded milk and cook until it thickens. Turn into a mold and set it aside to cool. Serve with cream and sugar.

Coffee Mold.

Old German Salad Recipe.

Here is an old German recipe for a salad that is delicious for Sunday night supper when sweet things pall. Finely chopped, it is also an excellent filling for sandwiches. Soak any desired quantity of salt sardelles in water for several hours. Sardines put up in oil may be used instead of the soaked sardelles. Line a salad bowl with lettuce leaves and fill with stuffed olives, capers and shrimps or crab meat. Garnish with parsley and slices of lemon and pour over the whole a heavy French dressing.

One of His Attractions.

A cynical young woman once said to me that she found cads more interesting than gentlemen, because you could always tell what a gentleman would do in a given situation, whereas you could never tell, in any situation, what a cad would do. Cads may or may not be the proper sport of cynical young women, but to the average busy creature the gentleman is wholly delightful in that he is dicable.—Atlantic Monthly.
